

Concluding Observations: Thailand, 2012

[T]he Committee remains concerned that in the context of the ongoing armed violence:...

Access to education has been disrupted by the targeting of government schools and teachers by non-State armed groups and by the presence of government military and paramilitary units near the schools.

The Committee recommends that the State party:

(a) Take immediate measures to ensure that the situation in the southern border provinces has no adverse effects directly and indirectly on children...

(b) Ensure that schools are not disrupted by State military and paramilitary units and are protected from attacks by non-state armed groups...

Consideration of reports submitted by States parties under article 44 of the Convention

Concluding observations: Thailand, CRC/C/THA/CO/3-4 (2012), paras.84-85.
